DEDICATION

Bob Harkelroad

The 2005-2006 yearbook is dedicated to Bob Harkelroad for his commitment and dedication to Marysville High School. Bob Harkelroad attended Marysville High School where he played football and ran track. He worked for the Marysville School District from 1978 to 2005. Bob started at the High School, transferred around the school district, and ended up back at the High School to finish his career. It was here that he developed a rapport with students with special needs and used his humor to bring laughter to the halls. In his spare time, Bob restores and works on a variety of classic cars. One of his cars was even featured in the July 2002 edition of CAR AND DRIVER magazine. On behalf of the school, the yearbook staff would like to thank Bob Harkelroad for his exceptional work throughout the years.

CLASS OF 2006!

SONG

Photograph
By: Nickleback

Look at this photograph
Every time I do it makes me laugh
How did our eyes get so red?
And what the hell is on Joey's head?
This is where I grew up
I think the present owner fixed it up
I never knew we ever went without
The second floor is hard for sneakin'
out
This is where I went to school
Most of the time had better things to do
Criminal record says I broke in twice
I must've done it half a dozen times
I wonder if it's too late
Should I go back and try to graduate Life's better now than it was back then
If I was them, I wouldn't let me in Every memory of looking out the back door
I had the photo album spread out on my bedroom floor
It's hard to say
It's time to say it
Goodbye, Goodbye
Every memory of walking out the front door
I found the photo of the friend that I was looking for
It's hard to say
It's time to say it
Goodbye, Goodbye
Remember the old arcade
Blew every dollar that we ever made
The cops hated us hangin' out
They say somebody went and burned
it down
We used to listen to the radio
And sing along with every song we'd know
We said someday we'd find out how it feels
To sing to more than just the steering wheel
Kim's the first girl I kissed
I was so nervous that I nearly missed
She's had a couple of kids since then
I haven't seen her since God knows when
I miss that town
I miss their faces
You can't erase
You can't replace it
I miss it now
I can't believe it
So hard to stay
Too hard to leave it
If I could relive those days
I know the one thing that would never change
Look at this photograph
Every time I do it makes me laugh
Every time I do it makes me

Altar Egos

McMasters

Frobishers

"All we wanted is a simple wedding," agrees Mark (Grant Rumley) and Colleen (Megan Hartig) when they get engaged. Their simple wedding stays simple...for about two minutes. Then the families get involved. There are the McMasters (Eric Kearns & Brittney Moscatello), who think the Frobishers are a bunch of snooty dudes, and the Frobishers (Adam VanDeusen & Gabrielle Spens), who picture the McMasters as a crowd of hillbillies. The bride's father keeps offering the soon-to-be-wed couple thousands of dollars to elope, "No questions asked!" The bride's mother decides to call in her sister (Jennifer Dowding), who is a sweet, lovely woman...until she becomes the Coordinator - a drill sergeant! The groom needs a best man, so he enlists his Uncle Josh (Tim Storm), who's an old hippie. The bride's kid sister (Corissa Bakko) can't wait for the wedding, either, since she gets the bride's old room...if she can talk dad out of his den, and mom out of it as a quilting room. Throw into this mix, a football referee, a tailor, a circus ringmaster (Gordie Whitney), the groom's ex-girlfriend (Nichole Verbeke), and a caterer (Katelyn Byam), and you get just some of the Altar Egos.

FRESHMEN MARCHING BAND

This year's freshmen show was a variation of Spanish music and fun formations. With about 60 members, the band earned a 1 at the MSBOA Festival. They were also the only freshmen band competing. They also performed at the high school's homecoming pregame and some football halftime shows throughout the season. They did a fantastic job this season, and they are now prepared to move into the Marysville Viking Regiment next year.

PLAY WITH POWER
MARCH WITH PRIDE!!

A Night Of Dreams

This year, the Viking Regiment had a fantastic marching season! They have had eight straight years of making it to states at the Silverdome. Unfortunately, last year, 2004, they just missed the chance. But, this year, they worked extremely hard and put themselves back on track by securing 8th place in states! With Drum majors Adam VanDeusen, Sara Eastwood, and Allison Warsinske, the Viking Pride is back in business!

A Word from the Director:
Dennis Duso

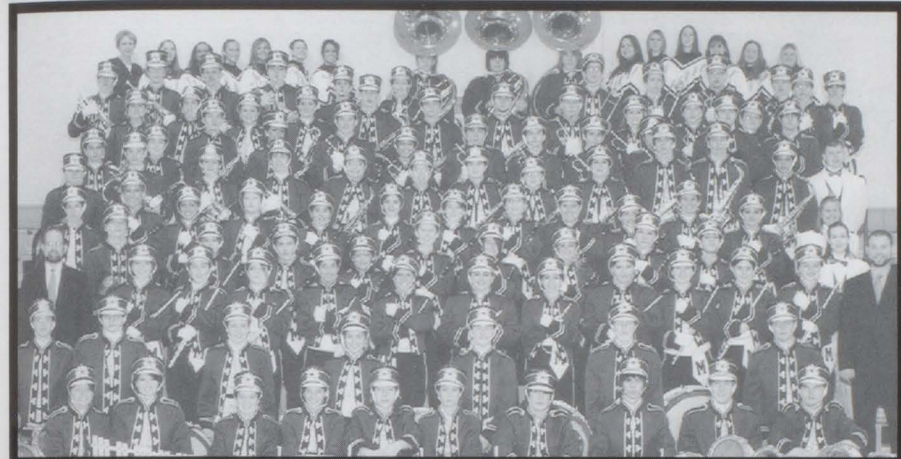

The success of the 2005 marching season is contributed to the senior class and their ability to have a vision, a goal, and a passion to take the band to the finals. We had a very creative show that not only involved students and staff but also many dedicated parents. The fame of the marching band is not only the high schools, but it is also the community's. The final thing that made this season so great was the students' willingness to sacrifice their time, energy, and talents. Students are overwhelmed with schoolwork and sports, which 75% of the band students are involved in, but along with that, they have parades, 7ams, Saturday competitions, and sectionals after school. What made the band so special this year is they practiced hard, which allowed them to perform at a higher level.

Teacher

Adam VanDeusen and Mr. Duso

"Mr. Duso demands nothing but the best from each of his students. These expectations require students to perform at their highest level possible, and through this, they learn more about themselves and their talents."

Judy Kovach and Mrs. Booth

"Mrs. Booth is very aware of her students' needs. Trigonometry and Algebra are subjects in which many students have trouble. So, Mrs. Booth finds different, creative methods to teach these subjects, and through the same journey, she provides an unending supply of support."

Heather Cooley and Mr. Skrzyniarz

"Personally, I never cared too much for History, that is until Mr. Skrzyniarz was my teacher. He is excellent at retelling different events throughout History. He helped me understand and enjoy History. Thank you!"

Gordie Whitney and Mr. Schmorrow

"From one artist to another-thanks for the tips on my artwork. You also inspire me to draw."

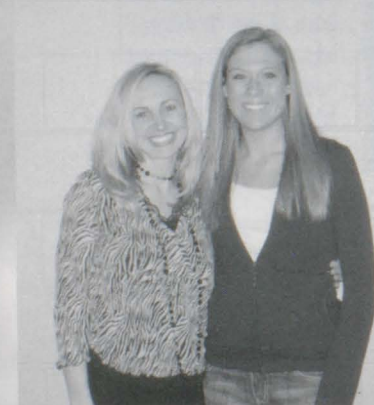

Travis Langolf and Mrs. Keifer

"I appreciate Mrs. Keifer because she is a very down to earth teacher. She relates the past to modern day events and is very understanding and will listen to anyone who has a question. Plus, she is a great artist and poet."

Katie Silver and Mr. Quinlan

"Mr. Q is such an amazing teacher. He relates the topics to the students and has the ability to make the lessons funny. He knows enough to keep the lessons interesting and fun. Mr Q is not afraid to be himself and act in a funny matter, which earns him more respect from his students."

Vanessa Day and Mrs. Gwisdala

"I like Mrs. Gwisdala because she is a really nice teacher, and her class is fun because we do a lot of hands on activities."

Mike Knowles and Mr. Nick

"Mr. Nick makes every bit of learning fun. He also brings humor to the class and gets everyone involved."

Appreciation

Melissa Galbraith and Mrs. Davis

"Mrs. Davis is one of my favorite teachers. She is nice, respectful, and fun. I took Speech as a freshman, and it was fun but also one of the most beneficial classes I've taken."

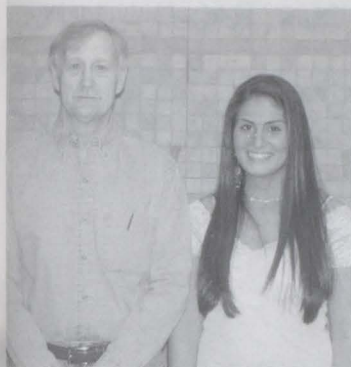

Joe Rogers and Mr. Puskarich

"He is one of the nicest guys. I enjoyed going to his class to hear his jokes and talk about things. Mr. Puskarich is an incredibly knowledgeable man. From some of the stories I have heard, he shows immense wisdom and intellectual capacities. If he were to be on Jeopardy, I think he would win. Some days he would watch it at lunch, and I don't remember him ever missing a question. Mr. Puskarich is a very kind, caring man."

Jessica Dado and Mr. Wastell

"Mr. Wastell is one of my favorite teachers because he gave everyone a chance to use their imagination."

Donovan Watza and Mrs. Barney

"Mrs. Barney is the coolest English teacher. We watched Christmas Vacation and Madagascar. Mrs. Barney always manages to call someone a freak."

Andrew Weingartz and Mr. Cottone

"Mr. Cottone is my Math teacher. He is really cool. He makes me feel like a friend instead of a student, and this makes learning with him more fun and easier."

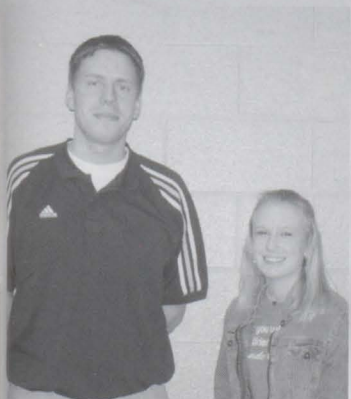

Carly Goulet and Mr. Biewer

"Mr. Biewer is a great teacher because I know that every time I go to his class, I'll have a good time or laugh about something."

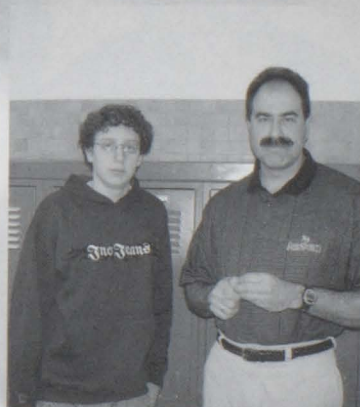

Arica Andrews and Mr. Rathje

"I like Mr. Rathje because he taught me things that I didn't even know about in Science. He would always ask me where my 'game face' was. I would always look at him and laugh then smile for the rest of the hour."

Matt Malone and Mr. George

"Mr. George is a really cool teacher. He always makes me laugh. We get along very well and he has taught me a lot."

Brittany,

From the moment you were born, you became the focal point of our existence. Your smile was the sunshine in our hearts and your happiness was the only treasure we sought.

For when your tiny hand touched ours, we knew that we had been chosen to love, nurture, and protect you forever.

Although our dreams for your life might not always be the same ones you seek, one thing that remains the same: your happiness will always be our greatest treasure.

We know now that the true miracle of that first touch lies in one simple truth: even though your hand may slip away from ours, we will hold each other in our hearts forever.

Congratulations! We are so proud of you.

Love Always,

To my staff:

Thank you for another amazing year! I couldn't have done it without all of you.

Your ability to turn serious moments into a laughing matter is what kept me sane. I will not forget all of your craziness and inappropriate discussions.

Thank you for taking my criticism in stride; I know it wasn't always easy, but I hope you learned from it. Being able to do so will help you in the long run. To my seniors, good luck to all of you. I wish you nothing but success. Big things await all of you! Love you all, Mrs. B

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

August

- 25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.
- 28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.
- 29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breached, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.

- 31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

- 1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.
- 2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.
- 4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.
- 6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.
- 9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.
- 12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.
- 14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.
- 15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.
- 20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.
- 22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.
- 23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

October

- 24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.
